

ISIDORE ADLER, 392 Chester Street, Brooklyn, New York; ROSE ADLER, 1935 Strauss Street, Brooklyn, New York; ROSE ADLER, 121 Goerck Street, New York City; ROSE ADLER, 703 East Fifth Street, New York City. None of this information was set out in the body of the report inasmuch as they did not appear to be identical with the appointee or his wife.

Records of the Office of Naval Intelligence show that one IRVING H. ADLER (according to FBI-NY Report of November 20, 1943) is or has been employed by the General Atlantic Steamship Company, which is controlled by JACOB JOSEPH MICHAEL. This information originated from the Third Naval District of New York City. Inasmuch as this information did not appear to relate to the appointee, no teletype was sent to the New York Office.

As noted in WFO letter to the Bureau of May 12, 1949, information was contained in the confidential files of the Civil Service Commission that an investigation was conducted on ADLER probably in the latter part of 1941 or the early part of 1942 by the Intelligence Unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Additional efforts to locate copies of reports of that investigation have been made with negative results. [redacted] now of the Central b3 per CIA Intelligence Agency, stated that investigations for OEM begun by one agency sometimes were finished by another, and it is thought that the investigation above referred to was completed by the FBI. In this connection it is noted that the WFO report submitted on ADLER, dated April 22, 1942, makes mention of one IRVING ADLER who, according to records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, contributed to two issues of "Fight" magazine in 1934. Both issues were reviewed at the HCUA. The February, 1934, issue describes ADLER as Executive Secretary, New York Teachers Anti-War Committee, and the April, 1934, issue describes him as Secretary, Teachers Anti-War Committee. It is believed that this ADLER is not identical with the appointee.

As also noted in WFO letter to the Bureau dated May 12, 1949, the files of this office contain numerous references to one ROSE FELDMAN. It is known definitely in many cases and believed probably in others that these references refer to the mother of BABETTE FELDMAN, both of whom are known to be active in Communist activities in this area.

WFO files contain a letter dated March 20, 1946, to the Bureau captioned, "National Committee on Atomic Information; Internal Security - C," in which it was stated that Father E. A. CONWAY, Treasurer of the National Committee on Atomic Information, told Special Agent J. BERNARD COOK that on March 12, 1946, a meeting was held at the home of JOSEPH BORKIN, economist employed by the Department of Justice. This meeting was attended, among others, by Senators O'MAHONEY and THOMAS and Representative HELEN DOUGLAS. At the conference it was reported that JOSEPH BORKIN advocated the turning over of atomic information to all nations. BORKIN was not interviewed because of this information and because it was believed that sufficient people had been interviewed.
